

BOND SALE IS ACUTE MATTER BEFORE STATE

Whether or Not Spitzer, Rorick Contract Shall Be Carried Out Causes Discuss

SOME WOULD BREAK IT

Hall Refuses to Sign Bonds on Grounds That They Are Illegally Sold

The question of the sale of bonds of the state before the new administration takes office has already become an acute question as an aftermath of the election.

The present Industrial Commission is proceeding with its efforts along this line and it is stated it is prepared to deliver more bonds to Spitzer, Rorick and Company if they are signed up. Secretary of State Hall, who refused to sign bonds because the mortgages necessary before bonds are issued had not been filed, amplified his reasons by saying "I believe a contract has been entered into whereby a brokerage commission has been arranged which would cause the bonds to be sold at less than par, and therefore is contrary to law."

The Fargo Forum has urged that the bond contract be broken. With the stand taken by Mr. Hall bonds cannot be delivered now, and the question, if it does not go into the courts immediately, may rest with the new Industrial Commission, Nestos, Johnson and Kitchen.

Interpretation of Laws

The Fargo Courier-News says: "The Bismarck Tribune in an editorial several columns long calls on the new Industrial Commission to end the industrial program at once and put the state back into the condition it was before the Nonpartisan league came into power. The Tribune puts the same interpretation in the defeat of the measures as the Fargo T. V. A. organ (reference to The Forum).

The interpretation of the defeat of the program measures that it represented a decision against more state socialism is not accepted by all. Chairman Liederbach of the league state committee insists that it means approval of the league program.

The advocacy of breaking the Spitzer, Rorick contract is attacked by state officials and Nonpartisans generally as an effort to keep money from the farmers of the state.

Nestos Is Quoted.

R. A. Nestos is quoted in saying in an interview: "Deplorable though the granting of almost unlimited power to the Industrial Commission was, it will now prove the salvation of the state, as it will enable the new commission by its orders to place around the public business and the public funds, those safeguards which are deemed essential to the rebuilding of the credit of the state. Those powers, I also believe sufficient to enable the commission to change the Bank of North Dakota into the rural credit bank, which the farmers of our state need and desire, and to limit the industrial program otherwise to the completion and management of the mill project at Grand Forks, and to decrease the losses to taxpayers of the state on account of the home builders' fiasco by securing the best settlement possible for the houses already erected and then closing the association's affairs."

ITALY PAYS ITS TRIBUTE

Unknown Soldier is Buried Under "Altar of Country"

Rome, Nov. 4.—Italy's unknown soldier this morning found final sepulchre in the Victor Emmanuel monument, the altar of the country, exactly under the allegorical figure representing Rome. King Victor Emmanuel and the royal family were the chief mourners in the solemn ceremony which was rendered deeply impressive by the presence of large numbers of widows, orphans and blind and mutilated men of the war.

New York, Nov. 4.—H. A. Van Cantebeek, minister of foreign affairs for Holland and permanent president of the League of Nations assembly, who will head the Dutch delegation to the Washington conference on limitation of armaments was a passenger on the steamship Rotterdam due here today.

RETAIL PRICES IN SLIGHT CHANGE

Washington, Nov. 4.—Retail prices decreased during the month ending October 15, according to department of labor statistics in seven cities out of twelve where investigations are maintained. SOLEMN TRIBUTE WILL BE PAID HERE ARMISTICE DAY TO UNKNOWN SOLDIER; ALL BUSINESS TO HALT FOR TRIBUTE

American Legion Committee Outlines Plans For Observance of Day to Be Solemnly Observed in All Parts of the Country—Patriotic Exercises and Parade to be Held

Solemn tribute will be paid by citizens of Bismarck to the unknown American soldier to be buried in Arlington Cemetery on Armistice Day, Friday, November 11, under plans announced today by the American Legion.

The observance is planned with all solemnity, and the parade which will be held the Legion committee characterizes rather as a pilgrimage such as will wind its way to Arlington cemetery at Washington, D. C., with President Harding leading.

The program for Friday, Nov. 11, follows:

10 a. m.—Patriotic exercises in schools.

11 a. m.—Short parade and pilgrimage to flagpole in Northern Pacific park.

12 noon—Two-minute silent tribute to unknown soldier, with people facing west with bared heads.

Legion speakers will make fifteen minute talks in the schools of the city at 10 o'clock. Following the dismissal of the schools the children will march in bodies from their respective buildings to take their places in the line of march.

Assemble At Flag-Pole

The parade will move at 11 o'clock, with H. T. Murphy in charge. It will be a short pilgrimage to the flagpole in the Northern Pacific park where the exercises in tribute to the unknown soldier will be held at the exact hour when a tribute is being paid in Arlington Cemetery by President Harding and in all other cities in the nation. The parade will be headed by the Elks band, followed by all ex-service men, whether members of the Legion or not, in uniform; citizens on foot or in automobile and school children.

Just before 12 o'clock the buglers will sound assembly. At 12 o'clock the whistle of the Hughes Electric company will sound one long blast. At that moment all persons in the assembly will bare their heads, face the west and pay the two-minute silent tribute. Every citizen is asked to do this. It is not enough that automobiles merely stop, the Legion committee says. The engine should be stopped and the occupants should get out of the cars and stand while paying the tribute. Telephone users will be asked to refrain from calling during that two-minute period.

At the close of the period buglers will sound taps, the flag will be raised to the top of the mast and the band will play.

Plan 4-Minutes Talks

Preparations are being made by the Legion committee to call support for the program. Letters are being sent to pastors in the city asking them to make announcements Sunday of the services. Four-minute speeches will be delivered at the theaters next Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday on the subject. The committee announced that Mayor Lennhart would issue a proclamation asking that all business ceases not later than 11:30 o'clock on that day, so as to give all employees time to prepare for the tribute.

France, Italy and England all have paid their tribute to the unknown soldier, symbol of the heroic dead of their nations. In London, the Legion committee announces, millions of people stood silent for two minutes and every bit of business life in the great city halted while the tribute was paid. Such a tribute will be paid in America on Armistice day.

RECALLS T. R. DAYS IN WEST

John W. Goodhall, Roundup Captain, Stops in Bismarck

John W. Goodhall, one of the best known of the ranchers in western North Dakota in the days when all the country west of the Missouri river was a free range, was in Bismarck last night, on his way to his ranch home in McKenzie county near Sanish after a visit in Dickinson.

Mr. Goodhall was captain of a roundup in which Theodore Roosevelt took part. For four years he was foreman for Marquis de Mores whom he says is the only man he ever knew who had no trace of fear in his make up, even among all the men who rode the range when cattle stealing and holdups were punishable by summary death at the end of a rope. Mr. Goodhall was at one time sheriff of Stark and of Billings counties, and was known over the entire western country as one of the leading ranchers.

He stopped in Bismarck for a visit with Capt. I. P. Baker.

For next year's crop the department reported generally favorable conditions throughout the northern hemisphere for winter wheat sowing.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes approved today the first two applications from brewers for permits to manufacture and sell beer for medicinal purposes under the new treasury regulations.

The applications were from Joseph Schiltz, of Milwaukee, and Piel Brothers of New York, and officials said the permits for them to engage in the beer business would be forwarded at once.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Congress will be asked for ten million dollars for the enforcement of prohibition during the next fiscal year, an increase of $2,500,000 over the appropriation for the current year.

TO ACT RAPIDLY.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Other applications from brewers for permits, officials said, would be acted upon rapidly and where there was no evidence of prior violation of the law or irregularity in the preparations for dealing in medicinal beer the necessary permits will be forthwith granted.

PREMIER HARA IS KILLED BY JAP ASSASSIN

Stabbed While at Railroad Station, Says Dispatch From Japan

HAD BEEN THREATENED

Assassination Comes at Critical Time in View of Washington Conferences

Tokio, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Hara was fatally stabbed in the breast today at the railroad station in Tokyo.

Delegates Depressed.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Official advices from Tokyo announcing that Premier Hara of Japan has been stabbed fatally today arrived at the state department today soon as press dispatches brought news of the assassination to the United States. Japanese embassy officials and members of the Japanese delegation to the disarmament conference and Far Eastern affairs conference received first news from the Associated Press and were greatly depressed.

The advices to the state department gave no details other than that the premier had been stabbed.

Before the departure of the Japanese delegation from Tokyo threatening letters had been received by various members of the cabinet.

The assassination of Premier Hara comes at a dramatic moment when the Japanese delegation is assembling for the Washington conference and when Japan is intensely interested in the international issue in which Premier Hara had taken an important part.

Government Loses Suit For Dissolution of Association

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The government suit for dissolution of a trade association involving 13 manufacturers of linseed oil was dismissed in Judge George A. FUNERAL HELD AT BRADDOCK

Mrs. Mary Cole, Long Resident of Emmons County, Succumbs Here

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Cole, a pioneer of Emmons county were to be held at Braddock today. Mrs. Cole died in Bismarck Wednesday night of the W. S. Casselman home.

Mrs. Cole had lived in Emmons county for about 24 years and had holdings there. She was brought to Bismarck about seven weeks ago being ill, and left the hospital to go to the Casselman home being an old friend of Mrs. Casselman. She was 83 years of age her death being a tragic advanced age. She would have been 84 on Christmas day.

Mrs. Cole lived in Emmons county before the railroad was built and after it was built she built a house in Braddock which she occupied since that time until coming to Bismarck for medical treatment. One son died several years ago being injured in an accident on a ranch. The funeral was to be held from St. Michael's church at Braddock.

NONPARTISANS WOULD START COURT ACTION

Dunn County Leaguers Adopt Resolutions Declaring For Continuance of Fight

REORGANIZATION QUEST'N

Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor John A. Hagan today telegraphed to Joseph A. Kitchen, of Sentinel Butte, his successful opponent, as follows: "From newspaper report you are evidently elected to office as commissioner of agriculture and labor. Please accept my congratulations. If either before or after you assume your official duties I can be of service to you or the state it will be a pleasure to render same."

The Nonpartisan league state committee is asked in resolutions adopted in Dunn county to resort to court action to prevent the new administration from taking office.

Resolutions adopted at a meeting held at the home of State's Attorney Thorsen in Dunn county, which was attended by A. H. Liederbach, state chairman, included the following:

"You go back to Fargo and line up your forces for a finish fight with capital. Remember, no compromise, no surrender to the enemies of human progress. We will back you to the limit of our ability, financially as well as morally; capital has dogged every step of progress in the struggle of the masses for equal opportunity and a just share for the toilers and through court action, through falsehood and deceit have cheated us of the fruits of the victories we won at the polls. Now let us fight them with their own fire and in every way possible check the spoilers in their mad rush to destroy every advance made for humanity."

Liederbach Commended.

Chairman Liederbach was commended for his "determined efforts to cast from the league all self-seeking politicians and grafters" and was assured of support in his efforts "to banish ring politics from the Nonpartisan league."

Mr. Liederbach wishes to have a reorganization meeting of the Nonpartisan league immediately, and not defer it until after A. C. Townley is at liberty in ninety days. Senator B. F. Baker, who was in Bismarck, expressed the same view. The state committee is understood to be carefully considering the matter in Fargo.

HAIL WARRANTS ARE CALLED UP

STATE RAIL COMMISSION ASKED TO CUT RATES ON GRAIN SIMILAR TO RECENT I. C. C. RATE CUT

LLOYD GEORGE EXPECTS TO BE AT ARMS PARLEY

Estimated That Saving in Decreased Freight Rates Would Be $200,000 a Year

FOLLOWS A RECENT ORDER

State Commission Had Requested Authority to Make Cut of 20 Per Cent

Washington, Nov. 4.—North Dakota in company with three other western states today was asked by the Interstate Commerce Commission to follow up its recent order reducing interstate freight rates on grain, grain products and hay approximately 15 per cent by making similar reductions within their state borders as well as upon interstate movement and that the interstate reduction now made should hereafter apply to local hauls. The three other states are Kansas, Nevada and Arizona.

SEES SAVING TO N. D. OF $200,000 ANNUALLY

Saving of $200,000 annually probably would be effected by reduction in intrastate grain and grain products rates as asked by Interstate Commerce Commission in North Dakota, V. Smart, rate officer of the state railroad commission, estimated today.

Mr. Smart said that after the United States district court had issued an injunction against making changes in existing schedules John Beckman, general solicitor for the National Association of Utility Commissioners, was asked to ascertain from the Interstate Commerce Commission how far power of state commissions extended, and he presumed the order of the commission resulted from this inquiry.

He said, however, that reduction on interstate shipments which had been made was 10 per cent on wheat and a little more on other products instead of 15 per cent. The state commission had asked a 20 per cent cut.

HELD INADEQUATE

Vienna, Nov. 4.—The Hapsburg de-thronement act in Hungary is declared by the Austrian press to be inadequate from the viewpoint of Austria and the little entente nations as it failed expressly to exclude Ex-King Charles and other Hapsburgs from the elected kingship. RUSSIA WON'T BE BOUND BY DISARM PARLEY

Moscow, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Foreign Minister Chicherin sent a note to the epente and the United States today saying that Russia will not feel herself bound by the decisions of the Washington conference and holds herself free to take any steps necessary to prevent their enforcement.

TELLS GROWTH OF ADVENTISTS

Rev. C. C. Jensen of Bismarck Returns From Conference

Rev. C. C. Jensen, of Bismarck, who is in charge of the Seventh Day Adventist church work in Bismarck and from here to the Montana line, has returned from a conference in Minneapolis. He told of the growth of the church, as reported at the conference, as follows:

The general conference of Seventh Day Adventists with headquarters at Washington, D. C., held their autumn council lately in Minneapolis, Minn. Such councils are held twice a year in various places, while their general conference is held every four years. Next spring, in May, it will be held in San Francisco, Cal.

This late meeting at Minneapolis gave some very interesting facts concerning the growth and work of this denomination, as follows: The funds received through their regular channels increased from $8,377,050.86 in 1919 to $11,574,094.23 in 1920, a gain of $3,277,357.37 in one year. Of this amount $7,145,463.94 was given in tithes and $4,428,630.29 in offerings for home and missionary work. The denominational membership in 1920 was 185,450 who gave a per capita of $63.92.

The sale of denominational literature during 1920 was larger than any preceding year, aggregating a total of $5,692,973.35. This literature issued in 99 languages is prepared in the form of 144 periodicals, 555 bound books 470 pamphlets 1896 tracts, a total of 3155 publications, one copy of each of which (books bound in cloth) is valued at $57.74.

Missionaries are proclaiming the nearness of the coming of Christ in 103 nations which have a total population of approximately 1,700,000,000. In these countries are more than three-fourths of the population of the world. The Adventists now have 4,341 church congregations, with 1,177 church edifices. They have 2,250 young people's missionary volunteer organizations, 615 Sabbath schools they operate, 615 publishing houses they own, 11 branch hospitals and 2,250 nurses and other employees. They believe in the gospel of good health and 27,741 patients were treated in the treatment rooms in addition to those who sought relief at the Sanitarium.

DESTROYS ERIE RAILROAD PIERS AND WATER FRONT YARDS

Woonawaken, N. D., Nov. 4.—The Erie railroad piers and water front yards were laid waste early today by one of the most spectacular fires the metropolitan area has witnessed in years. Five piers all heavily laden with freight a five-story warehouse, thirty loaded barges, a train of 30 loaded freight cars and another of five oil tanks were destroyed. Early estimates of the loss ranged from $100,000 up but the figures were frankly guesses and will remain speculative until a check can be made. The fire was the third to occur on Erie railroad property within six weeks.

PALESTINE IS TO GET FIFTY NEW SCHOOLS YEARLY

This is the Plan of the British —A School Within Reach of Every Child

NO COLLEGES IN STATE

Jerusalem, Nov. 3.—The British government, which has a mandate over Palestine, has undertaken a plan to place a school within the reach of every child in Palestine. It hopes to accomplish this within a few years. The purpose is to establish 50 new schools each year, these to be distributed throughout Palestine as the need is greatest. Already hundreds of children are reeling for the first time the benefits of an education. Before the war, Jerusalem, then a city of some 80,000 inhabitants, could not boast of a simple government high school. Even now 70 persons out of every 100 do not know how to read and write. The path of educational development in Palestine contains one great stumbling block, the lack of cooperation and unity among the different elements of population. The government schools today are attended only by Mohammedans. There is great need for institutions of higher education. At present, there is not a college in the entire state of 1,000,000 inhabitants. The American university of Beirut, Syria, is the only place open to Palestinians seeking higher education. The authorities recognize this lack of educational opportunity but find themselves helpless to remedy it owing to the inability to obtain funds. There has been a great deal of talk in recent years about establishing a Hebrew university in Jerusalem. Its plans have been drawn and the money to build it has not been secured and it remains in the realm of things yet to be.

They all had Chartreuse. It cost the buck 35 cents.

THE BIG FIVE AT THE WASHINGTON DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES, secretary of state is most famous as an expert in commercial law and jurisprudence. He was born 59 years ago at Glens Falls, N. Y., and was educated at Colgate, Brown and Columbia universities. His name first became known nationally in 1905, when he proved the consolidated gas companies of New York a monopoly. In 1906 he was elected governor of New York and was re-elected in 1908. President Taft appointed him justice of the supreme court before his term expired. Hughes resigned in 1916 to accept the Republican nomination for president, but was defeated by President Wilson. With the inauguration of President Harding, Hughes became secretary of state. He still clings to one ambition, that of becoming chief justice of the supreme court.

VITTORIO RINALDI RICCI, Italian ambassador to the United States and leading Italian representative at the disarmament conference, is one of the best known lawyers in his country. He is an expert in commercial, maritime and mercantile law. Although he has a right to the title of marquis, he has never used it. His fortune is estimated at 10,000,000 lire ($2,000,000), which he accumulated from a modest beginning. Ricci did not participate in politics until 1912, when Premier Giolitti nominated him senator. As such he drafted bills on mercantile marine and on state ownership of water power. He represented Italy at the famous international conference on commercial affairs. Now, at the age of 61 he has abandoned his profession entirely for politics.

PRINCE IYESATO TOKUGAWA heads the Japanese delegation at the disarmament conference. Due to the importance of the Pacific question at this time, international experts see in him the man on whom will depend the success of the meeting in Washington. He was born in 1883 at Tokyo, and at the age of five was adopted as heir by the last of the Tokugawa Shoguns, a year after the shogunate had surrendered its regency to the imperial court. Before he became prince, he had gained an education in England which gave him a broad insight into international affairs. This view was broadened still more when the prince toured the United States and Europe in 1910. At that time he had reached his seventh year as president of the Japanese house of peers. He still holds that office.

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, premier of Great Britain, is expected to be the dominant personality at the disarmament conference. Born 58 years ago of Welsh stock, he gained early recognition by championing the rights of the common people. He first became nationally famous when he opposed the Boer War. From the time he was elected to Parliament in 1890 he carried on his fight for reforms. He was chancellor of the exchequer from 1908 to 1915, then minister of munitions until 1916, when he was named secretary of state for war in the coalition cabinet. That year he became prime minister. He was a dominant figure at the allied peace conference in Paris. Since then he has been taken up with problems of securing peace in Ireland and relieving the unemployment situation.

was not enough seats to supply the demand last night at this popular theater. "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is by far the greatest picture ever made, one and all agree after seeing that it is superior in all respects to anything ever shown in our city. Never before has it been our privilege to see a picture so powerful, so able to carry the audience from laughter to tears, so immense in its portrayal of human emotions, so powerfully able to deliver its message, as this. The musical accompaniment deserves a great deal of credit also as the score is rendered in perfect harmony with the picture, carrying one away and making you live with the characters of the story. This picture will go down in history as one of the truly big achievements of the age, and as the New York Times says, "It's well worth anyone's time and money."

FARMERS KEEP THE POT BOILING OVER IN RUSSIA

Tillers of Soil Not More Regularly Than City Men—Wealth Goes Into Villages

CITY WORKMEN ARE PETS

Moscow, Nov. 3.—(By a Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press)—The Russian peasants have fared best under Soviet rule, despite the fact that the government has stressed on the betterment of the condition of the city workmen and Communists, who are mostly city and town workers. Except in the famine areas where over 20,000,000 are necessities peasants the farming population has kept the pot boiling and managed to eat much more regularly than the city men. The great majority of the metropolitan population has returned to the land. The Bolshevik prevention of free interior trade has starved the cities whose people had to go to the country for food carrying with them their personal belongings which they traded for potatoes and flour. As a consequence the thrifty farmers have become wealthy. As wealth goes in the villages they have hoarded rubles, household articles and wearing apparel which the city folk have brought in exchange for bread. The peasant women also have taken on the fashions of their city sisters, struggling in vain to make themselves grand dames. With three cows, a litter of pigs, a flock of chickens and a potato patch, the peasant woman had the most desired commodities in Russia and she exchanged flour, vegetables and meat for the trappings of city life. Humble cabins are filled with gaudy tapestries, silk furniture, pianos, musical instruments, Dresden china, hideous marble bronze ornaments, silver dishes, opera coats and shoes. The rugged peasant girls with broad shoulders, muscular arms and large feet, which is the result of years of ploughing and hoeing and woodchopping, present a strange appearance in their tiny alighted hats, short skirts and slippers which the village shoemakers have fashioned after the Parisian models by fast only accustomed to the boulevards. Investigation seems to show that the peasants are generally pleased with the government's new system of taxation whereby the farmers must surrender a fixed percentage of their crops in taxes for they are finding it far preferable to the old requisition system. They are not resisting it to any considerable extent and seem confident that only a fixed amount will be taken. The present system of free trade reminds them of old times and they are generally showing satisfaction. The government seems to be gradually winning them over in a half-hearted way. Meantime the government finds its pet proteges—the city workmen—are faring worse and worse and they seem much disgruntled. Free trade is of no assistance as the people are lacking the money to buy. In addition the government is unloading the responsibility for the feeding of the workmen. The outcome of the complete monopolization of trade is probably wholly different than the party leadership intended and the party are now finding it difficult to explain their good intentions to the industrialists whose families lack food and clothing.

FARMERS CANNOT DISPENSE WITH LOCAL DEALERS, SAYS COUNTY AGENT

Ames, Iowa, Nov. 3.—That local farm bureau organizations go too far in the matter of cooperative buying of farm commodities and do injury to farmers' interest by uneconomic competition with existing business is the opinion of at least one county agent in Iowa, Clarence Pickard of Humboldt county. Mr. Pickard, who formerly believed that the county agent should lead his assistance to groups of farmers who desired to buy supplies cooperatively to be distributed from the car for cash, has altered his policy due to several experiences with cooperative buying. "We purchased three cars of twine last year and two cars of clover seed this year," says Mr. Pickard, "with such good support from the farmers as to leave certain dealers stranded high and dry with these commodities on hand. As a result, this spring it was with some difficulty that the dealers were persuaded to handle twine at all. It was necessary that dealers should carry twine, for some farmers could not pay cash at the car, many were in the habit of waiting until they ran their binders out before thinking of twine, and without the dealer there would be no way to supply and balls for the farm bureau has no store-houses or distributing system. "It looks like a clever trick at first to show the dealers up this way, but when they call our bluff and withdraw from handling these commodities in which we have shown them up, then we are stuck, for we have started something we can't finish. We are not prepared to give this service to all kinds of farmers every day in the year." As a result of these experiences Mr. Pickard has altered his policy toward this problem. "Whenever the farmers throughout the county or in any other portion of it," he says, "demand the cooperative purchasing of a commodity, we offer them their privilege of organizing their own cooperative society to free them from the real or imaginary bondage of the private dealer. "My attitude is that the dealer performs an indispensable service which, whether rendered by him or by someone else, must be paid for by someone in some way. I believe the farm bureau should refrain from country-wide buying for farmers unless they are prepared to go all the way and completely replace the dealer with reference to the specific commodity they are attempting to handle. The farmer's prerogative of organizing his own cooperative association is a check on the dealer."

CUPID IS LOSING OUT IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 4.—While elsewhere in the country more people are being married this year than ever before, in New York times are duller than usual for the license clerks and the ministers. Government statisticians recently concluded the 1921 crop of weddings would be a bumper one with Dan Cupid harvesting 1,500,000 brides and just as many husbands.

THOMAS MEIGHAN in "THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN" MONDAY AND TUESDAY ELTINGE from the fields of the unmarried. And yet New York City's record probably will show at least 3,000 fewer marriages than in 1920 or 1919. There are easier tasks than giving an explanation for this nation-wide epidemic of knot-tying in a year when millions are unemployed and as many are brooding over decreases in their incomes. So say the sociologists and others with penchants for finding out what they call the why of things. But it is not distressingly futile to seek a reason for the fact that only 56,501 licenses were issued up to the recent date here this year compared to 59,065 in the corresponding period of 1920.

In the first place, they will tell you at the license bureau that there are fewer immigrants than in the past, because of the restriction laws. Unmarried men always had a habit of coming over here to enjoy freedom, and then almost immediately flinging part of it away at the altar. Many young men who might otherwise wed over that when the landlord would get through deflating their pocketbooks not enough would remain to calm the butcher, the baker and those who deal in silk stockings, cosmetics, subway tickets, coats and suits and the other things needed by housewives, such as needles for darned the husband's socks and rolling pins to fashion biscuits and maintain order.

Even when the New York suitor has the money he often seems unable to locate a home. This condition is common because of the home shortage, many young things after their conventional daisy honeymoon return to live with the girl's family or the man's. Perhaps from this will come a new field of humor, the son-in-law jokes that would give mother-in-law a long-awaited relief.

DIVORCE AND REVENGE

BY WINONA WILCOX. A "child" will turn out all right in the end—if he is made to," runs a wise line in a recent best seller. And so will a husband if he is made to. Such is the gist of many letters from wives who have written to me—after they had been divorced.

Comes this from a woman who admits that she obtained her divorce for revenge—and found the taste bitter. "I have proved the theory that the offended wife can achieve a sure revenge by releasing a husband to marry the other woman."

"When my husband found his faultily and gave me grounds for divorce, I never hesitated a second. I took refuge with my married daughter, and I want to work."

"The errand she wedded the object of his infatuation. She is bobbed and rouged, stuff adorns and fills her head. She is pretty, but ignorant, selfish and lazy. Queer—how beauty can fool a man."

"Now my former husband is one of the fastidious and esthetic sort. He needs a real wife to see to his comforts. He loves to be taken care of. He must have an orderly splick and span home; and a delicious little dinner to complete his day. His feet are sensitive, he never had to put on a sock with a hole in it while I lived with him."

"Did he think of these necessities when he fell in love with a pink skin and a perfect figure?"

He did not. He was so used to my care that he had come to expect it as his natural right. He never gave my industry a thought. He supposed all wives were like that. "He learned. Time changed for him the day I packed my trunk. His new wife is as indolent as she is extravagant. I made many of my clothes, she charges hers at the best shops. "My former husband now lives on delicatessen products and tinned foods which he loathes. They make him dyspeptic."

The result is a worried and a harassed man, he is thin and cranky before his time. "The poor man steals over to call upon our daughter and stay with our baby grandson, and when I see him, I could weep, not for him, but over him."

"His own children are ashamed to meet him with his baby-girl wife. By following his romantic impulse, their father has ruined the last years of his life."

"My revenge is complete. No wronged wife could ask more—but it is like a cup of poison."

"When I surrendered him to that girl, I delivered him up to the worst side of his nature. "I, the wife of years, knew his strength and his weakness. I never should have divorced him. I should have compelled him to live up to his finest side."

A DANCER'S DILEMMA

By Winona Wilcox. Opposites attract, we say idly, when we meet a tall man with a short girl, or a handsome husband with a plain little gray dove of a wife. By mating opposites, nature maintains her averages, says science.

Sometimes the theory works in subtle ways. Here is an odd combination arranged by nature. "For several years, I was a dancer, my parents being stage folks," writes CONFUSED. "Two years ago I was hurt in an accident and never can dance again. A year since I met a well educated young man who wishes to marry me. He will give me a good home, and never in my life have I known what a home is like."

"It seems like a dream to go to come true, and maybe it never will. Unfortunately for me the young man was brought up by parents violently opposed to dancing. Although they are nice to me now I know they would never let their son marry one who has been a professional dancer."

"I dare not tell him the truth, but I cannot give him up. "Whatever the outcome the man should have the truth. It is vital because it has to do with heredity. The man is entitled to know what is the ancestry of the mother of his children."

Once in a while it is necessary to reply to a letter with a frankness not at all desired by the writer. I'll instance to a girl of 20 who refuses to marry a man of 50. He wants her to keep home for him on an isolated Montana ranch. He has offered to marry her but she doesn't love him. However, she would like to be his housekeeper, and of course her parents object. Then the man offers to adopt her and leave her his wealth and still her parents protest that her reputation would be ruined. "Would it be?" asks the girl. Echo—from every corner of the country. It would.

A girl who cries herself sick when she can't have her own way says that after some trouble with her fiancé she fell to the floor was unconscious for a day and a night while the young man and her mother watched over her.

And then she was shocked when the young man suggested that they part for six months or until she could learn to control her temper. Her hope chest was filled. Every time she saw it she had more hysterics. Finally her father took it from her room.

Now this is not a very subtle form of the will-to-power. Indeed it is a much too common way of influencing a man. Cattle tears are only a mild variation of the extreme detailed above.

Obviously a specialist in nervous diseases ought to treat the young woman—until the young man in the case is convinced that she is a fit candidate for matrimony.

CREAM PECANS. Peel into halves one pound of pecans being careful not to break them. Then beat the white of an egg with an equal amount of cold water into a cream. Work into this enough fine white confectioners sugar to make a very smooth paste. Take a small piece of the paste, roll it and put it between two halves of pecan. Flatten together, somewhat and roll the whole lightly with the paste.

These are a favorite southern confection, usually served at dinners.

METHOD CHANGE FOR N. P. LEAGUE URGED BY LADD

Must Be More Conservative He Says in Giving Ideas On Cause of Defeat

CHANGES HELD NECESSARY

Dissatisfaction With Some Leaders is Held Contributing Cause of Defeat

The Christian Science Monitor prints an interview with Senator E. F. Ladd on the Nonpartisan defeat. The article follows:

The defeat at the polls last Friday of the Nonpartisan League forces in the state election of North Dakota does not mean the submergence, much less the destruction, of the movement. The setback just suffered is temporary, and the league, with re-organized forces, will give battle to their opponents with every prospect of "coming back" at the earliest possible opportunity.

Such is the view taken of the situation by the foremost protagonist of the Nonpartisan League movement, Edwin P. Ladd (R.), Senator from North Dakota, who is the league's spokesman in Washington. In a special interview yesterday, Senator Ladd declared that however disappointing the setback may be to the believers in the objects of the league, there is no question of disruption and any calculations founded on such a hope are bound to go awry.

"Apparently on the surface," said Senator Ladd, "the independents have won, although by a very narrow margin. There is a possibility that the Nonpartisan League may lose control of the industrial commission. The incident does not mean that the league forces have surrendered, or that its power has been destroyed. We are as strong as ever and as determined to have economic justice through the methods we have devised to work out our own salvation."

More Conservatism in Future

"This battle," continued the Senator, "will be renewed. Whatever of progressivism or liberal legislation has been enacted in Congress or in the legislatures of the northwest is due largely to the effects and the example set by the farmer movement of the Nonpartisan League. With re-organized forces the Nonpartisan League will get back the control which may be temporarily shaken."

S Senator Ladd indicated that great case would be taken in the reorganization of the league forces to put it under the direction of leaders whose loyalty had been tested, and added that it would be, perhaps, necessary to go along more conservative lines than is, to go slower in carrying out the program of the league. "The program is to be more carefully considered before they undertake further development of it," the Senator said.

"The farmer wants to organize to bring his produce to the city gates," said Senator Ladd. "He can only do this through organization. He cannot do it as an individual producer. We want the consumers to organize that they may be able to buy at the city gate and thus help to bring about efficient distribution. I am not criticizing the middlemen as such. They may have been necessary, but we are beginning to realize the extent to which lack of control exercised by producers and consumers is rebounding to their mutual disadvantage."

Reasons for Defeat

Asked to explain the reasons why the Nonpartisan League was defeated, Senator Ladd specified several reasons, none of which was directly due to the shortcomings of the government which the league gave to North Dakota, he said. Following are some of the reasons for the setback, according to the Senator:

1. Continuous opposition of interests that were hostile to the league

ST. PAUL TAILOR SPENT FORTUNE ON HIS HEALTH

Julius Fuchs Says He Was Steadily Going Down Hill—Is All Right Now

"The best money I ever spent was the little amount I spent for Tanlac," said Julius Fuchs, 1016 Manan St. St. Paul, Minn., a well-known tailor.

I had spent hundreds of dollars without getting any results in an effort to get relief from my rheumatism and liver troubles. Instead of getting better, however, I was steadily growing worse, and I had gotten to the point where I was about ready to give up.

"Tanlac is no more like the other medicines I tried than day is like night. It took hold of me right from the start and soon had me feeling as fine and well as ever in my life. I have told all my friends that the best investment I ever made was when I bought my first bottle of Tanlac."

"Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere."

and which resorted to every means of political and economic opposition.

2. The period of depression which overtook the farmers of the United States created dissatisfaction everywhere, and to that extent was felt in North Dakota, where financial difficulties were bound to reflect to some extent on the popularity of the government of the State.

3. Dissatisfaction with some of the leaders.

4. Some of the organizations in North Dakota, the breakdown of which helped dissatisfaction, were in some way regarded as Nonpartisan League by-products, while a matter of fact they were not identified with the league. This was true in the case of consumers' stores. The failure of the Equity Packing Plant was also a big factor.

"It must be remembered that any movement is liable to experience a period of faint-heartedness. After all, the Nonpartisan League forces have been fighting and fighting hard for years. It has fought opposition of a bitter and uncompromising character from various quarters. That it should show temporary weakening is not more surprising than it was in the case of other great movements of history. The household must be cleaned out. The leadership must be entrusted to men of tested loyalty, and more care must be taken in the future to prevent the association with the league purposes of bodies and organization that would use it to secure their own ends."

MANDAN NOTES

Mandan Women Form New Club

A temporary organization of a Business and Professional Woman's club was formed Wednesday evening at a meeting held at the Commercial club rooms. About forty young women were present.

Miss Beach of Bismarck, state president of the B. and P. W. association who had been asked to address the meeting told how the Business and Professional Woman's club had been formed three years ago at a convention in St. Louis and stated that new practically every large city in every state of the union with the exception of Rhode Island has its Business and Professional Woman's club. She explained the organization of the club, the rules and constitution. The club is non political and non-sectarian and is formed primarily to afford an opportunity to young women engaged in office and professional work to become acquainted and to solve their own problems.

Miss Buchholz a member of the Bismarck club accompanied Miss Beach to Mandan and explained what the Bismarck club had accomplished since its organization a year ago.

The organization of a club in Mandan was discussed and it was decided to elect temporary officers and to appoint various committees. Officers elected were: President, Miss Edith Ekman; Vice President, Miss Pearl Lowden; Secretary, Miss Cecile Porter and Treasurer, Miss Agnes Olson. Three committees were appointed, one to draw up the constitution, a membership committee and one to look into the matter of securing a suitable club room. These committees to make their report at a meeting called for next Wednesday evening in the Commercial club rooms at 7:30 o'clock.

Leavening Strength Tells the Story

The price you pay for baking powder doesn't determine the results you will have on bake day—It's the leavening strength that counts.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The meeting of all the lodges of the third district of the Rebekahs was held at Hazelton yesterday. At the afternoon meeting business was transacted followed by the election of officers. The officers for the district follow: President—Mrs. G. A. Lenhart, Hazelton. Vice-president—Mrs. C. E. Mrs. Eleanor Burdick of Mandan won the vice grand charge. The next annual meeting of the district will be held at Mandan.

At six o'clock the delegates were the guests of the Hazelton lodge at a banquet. The banquet was followed by the evening meeting. This was the regular meeting of the Hazelton lodge. School Notes

Beside the regular school work in the gymnasium classes other classes will be held in the afternoon, evenings and on Saturdays. Among the classes there will be several groups conducted by J. J. MacLeod, who has charge of the Boys' Welfare work. The business men's club will also be in charge of Mr. MacLeod. Girls' basket ball will be in charge of Miss Stanka, and the boys work will be in charge of Mr. Swanish. Benton Flow will supervise the work of the Alumni Men's club.

The Scouts and the Junior boys will use the gymnasium on Saturdays.

The board of education and the superintendent of city schools have been invited to join the Dental association at luncheon on Nov. 12, at which time matters of common interest will be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff, Miss Madge Runey, Miss Mary Giffin and Miss Jean Campbell have planned a picnic party this afternoon. They enjoyed a picnic supper in the country.

Plans are being made for the beginning of dramatic work in the high school. This work will be under the auspices of the Junior and Senior classes. The use of talent from the lower classes is optional. Both the junior and senior classes will give a class play this year.

Arrangements are now being made for the 1921-1922 basketball schedule. The trip taking in the Fargo and Casselton games will be made the twenty-fourth of February. On January 15 the team will leave for games with Jamestown and Valley City.

Hot lunches will be served at the high school as soon as the weather turns cold.

Richholt School.

Richholt Rough riders lost by one point in the return football engagement with Junior high Thursday afternoon. Each scored two touchdowns. Lester Ellis kicked one goal in his two attempts while John Anderson failed in both of his. The Rough Riders missed their splendid running half back Balser Klein, who was unable to get down to the game. With Balser in the game the High Browns from Capitol Hill would have had a bad time of it. Steve Hagan made the first score when he fought his way through the Rough Riders back field carrying the ball 30 yards for a touch down. Lee Ellis kicked the goal making the score 7 to 0.

Before the half closed and when the Junior high were on their own 30 yard line Hard Boiled Scroggins got under a near forward pass from John Anderson and succeeded in making the goal line before being downed. Anderson failed to kick the goal.

In the second half Ellis got away for a touch down which he failed to convert. In the last ten minutes of play Fred Landers negotiated a beautiful end run which netted the second touch down. John Anderson failed to kick the goal. The game ended with the score 13 to 12 in favor of the Junior high school. As each team has won a game, it was decided to stage a play off next Tuesday afternoon at the ball grounds at 4:30.

Chuck Vokes made a splendid official. The teams were as follows: Junior High—Richholt R. R. Archie McCray, q John Anderson Steve Hagan, rb M. Agar Buster Rosen, lb If Fred Landers Lester Ellis, fb Ed Ryberg W. Frazier c E. Bender William Garake, rz rg. Heinle Danrol Carol Danrol, lg If Ted Zears

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

BILLION

Unless you are a congressman, preparing a tax bill, it is next to impossible to think in billions.

A billion dollars worth of gold would make a pillar six feet square and 108 feet wide. Broken up, it could be hauled only in a train of 58 railroad cars with two engines. Coin it into $5 gold pieces and it would make a road 25 feet wide and more than 10 miles long.

Does this scare a congressman? Not at all. One gets careless with a billion dollars when it is other people's money.

MARVEL

A lighthouse beacon, of 1,400,000,000 candle power and visible 140 miles out at sea, has just been built by Elmer A. Sperry, marine inventor.

This is the most powerful artificial light ever produced by man, and scientists think Sperry is "some pumpkins."

However, turn the Sperry light on in daytime, and it is only a mild glow when compared with the sun. Man certainly is wonderful—until you compare him with nature.

BUFFALOES

No more danger that buffaloes will become extinct. A packing house begins raising them for meat. It starts a great buffalo ranch with nearly 1000 head, near Cowiche, Wash., paying $400 a head to get the herd started.

The buffalo forages for itself and can live under climatic conditions that kill domestic cattle.

Watch for more news about this buffalo ranch. In two more decades, the nation may be eating more buffalo meat than beef.

JAGS

Prohibition has reformed the bees, says Allen Latham, president of the Connecticut Bee Keepers' Association. He says that, in the old days, many a bee hung around the fermented dumpings from breweries and distilleries, accumulating such a "load" that they could not carry honey.

That, in a nut shell, was the real booze situation that brought about prohibition. The temperance movement was assured of success from the moment the public saw it as a problem of efficiency at work.

"NEWSUD"

The word "news" originally was formed by taking the first letters of north, east, west, south—signifying that it covered all parts of the compass.

Now that we are exploring the depths of the ocean and flying into the upper air and trying to send messages to Mars, two more directions should be added—up and down. The word "news" should be changed to "newsud."

Do you know a more important word, to the intellect? To spread news among the American people yearly requires paper equivalent to a strip two feet wide and 40,000,000 miles long.

LUCK

Frederick Gardner, a New York letter carrier, inherited $100,000. He still continues his daily rounds in the Bronx, as though nothing unusual had happened.

You probably think you would quit work if you had a stroke of luck like Gardner's. But don't be too sure about it. After idling on vacation for a few months, you would begin hanging around your old job or some one else's.

Work is the greatest joy of life, though few admit it.

LOVE

Latest excavations at Pompeii, Italian city buried by a volcanic eruption in the year 79, bring to light some love letters carved in ivory. Apparently, the ancients were not afraid of breach of promise suits, since they left such lasting evidence.

The ivory love letters remain. Their writer and his sweetheart have vanished in the dust. Somewhere, though, their love lives on. This would be a futile world if love ended at the grave. Like the soul, love is intangible and perpetual.

GERMAN GOLD PAYMENTS

Since the discovery of America in 1492, the total amount of gold that has been mined in the world is about $18,000,000,000, says the National City Bank of New York. Germany is supposed to pay an indemnity of about twice that much, in gold.

Half of the gold that has been mined since 1492 is now in the hands of banks and governments.

Of the balance, much has been lost, or hoarded in India. The rest has been manufactured into watches, gold leaf, etc.

If Germany could obtain control of every gold mine in the world, and if the mines could be made to yield at the same rate as they have since 1492, it would take Germany until the year 2779 to pay the indemnity in full.

Apparently, this has occurred to the French. They negotiate for Germany to pay in goods instead of yellow metal.

MUMMIFIED FOOD

If the railroad strike had materialized, it would have brought forth from cold storage some interesting antiques.

New York, alarmed by threat of a rail tie-up, takes inventory and finds that cold storage warehouses in that state have 17,816,998 pounds of creamery butter, 1,153,849 cases of eggs, 6,850,919 pounds of frozen beef, and a long list of other articles running into the millions of pounds.

The figures look impressive, but compare them with our big population and you find that the nation's food reserves would last only a matter of days if all trains stopped running.

FORD

The technical chief of the Manchester Motor Company, of England, announces that his company sold Henry Ford a $15,000 auto. This will furnish much ammunition for Henry's jealous enemies.

But do not overlook that it was Henry who made cheap cars available for those who cannot afford $15,000 cars.

If a man suddenly discovered how to make bread for a cent a loaf, no one would object to his occasionally eating meat instead of sticking exclusively to a bread diet. But Henry ride his $15,000 car in peace.

SOUL

Did your soul exist before you were born? Theosophists think so. L. W. Rogers, president of the American Theosophical Society, says: "What you term age is only the age of your present body. The real you—that is, your soul—is millions of years old. It made its first appearance on this earth in the mineral kingdom. It next appeared in plants, then in animals. Finally it made its appearance in a human body as the soul of a man."

Buddha taught much the same thing. Something went wrong with his advertising.

HANDS

How much would you sell both of your hands for? Would you permit them to be chopped off for $60,000? That is what a jury awarded Rose Cattini, eight-year-old Brooklyn girl, whose hands were cut off by a motor truck.

Rose can put that money in the bank and draw $50 a week interest—enough to keep her, but a small compensation for going through life without hands, next worst handicap of being blind.

MYSTERY

The gentlemen who handle headache statistics as if they were feathers or soap bubbles may be able to answer this:

Why is it that the nation's bank clearings now are running larger than in 1916, yet business is worse?

Clearings in a recent week were $7,021,923,000. In the corresponding week of 1916, they totaled only $6,355,672,000.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

SWEDE TOWNSHIP

All over North Dakota Swede township, in LaMoure county, is being accorded a dubious sort of credit for having cast a hundred per cent pro-league vote at the recall election last Friday. Here, for example, is a nasty fling from the Valley City Times-Record:

We have not been consulted regarding the distribution of Airdale pups but if any of the breed are left after the Waterloo of last Friday we believe that in all fairness one should be given to Swede township in LaMoure county, where they cast 100 per cent vote to retain the present socialist administration at Bismarck.

Now, the truth is that Swede township is receiving more credit than it deserves, and the people of LaMoure county more odium than they deserve. Swede township is on the mend. In the last general election Swede cast 131 votes for Frazier and one (1) vote for O'Connor. In the recall election Swede cast 127 votes for Frazier and one (1) vote for Nestos. A more casual analysis of these returns will show that the socialist strength in Swede township declined four points, while the I. V. A. vote stood up like a stone wall.

Now, assuming that an election will be held in this state once every two years, and that the socialist vote in Swede township continues to decline at the rate of four votes in each election, it is obvious that at the end of sixty-two years the socialist strength in that township will have been completely dissipated, and that in 1933 the I. V. A.'s will carry Swede township by a vote of 1 to 0.

Let us take heart and keep a stiff upper lip.

LaMoure Chronicle.

WHAT STATE PAPERS ARE SAYING ABOUT THE RECALL

RECALL ELECTION.

(LaMoure Chronicle.)
The most significant thing about last Friday's recall election, and the point which requires the greatest emphasis, is the fact that the overthrow of the Nonpartisan league and the unseating of Governor Frazier, Attorney General Lemke and Commissioner Hagan was not so much an I. V. A. victory as it was a case of repudiation by the members of the league themselves. In other words, it was not the naughty town vote that put the present industrial commission out of commission, but the back-sliding league voters of the country themselves who turned the trick.

At least that is indubitably true of LaMoure county, which gave Mr. Frazier a majority of 670 in the general election of 1920, and a majority of only 182 in the recall election last Friday. The town vote cut very little figure in this tremendous slash, as a study of the comparative returns printed on the first page of this paper will show.

Take the LaMoure vote for example: At the general election in 1920, LaMoure gave 378 votes for O'Connor and 79 for Frazier; in the recall election LaMoure gave 372 votes for Nestos and 63 votes for Frazier. The independents lost 6 votes and the league 16 votes, this resulting in a net gain for the independents of 10 votes in LaMoure.

In Pearl Lake, on the other hand, Frazier received 58 votes in 1920 and 46 votes last Friday—a loss of 12 votes—while O'Connor received 12 votes in 1920 and Nestos received 20 votes in the recall election—a net gain of 20 votes for the independents. The independents made a net gain of 22 votes in Prairie township, 40 votes in Gladstone township, and so on throughout the county. The league made gains in only three precincts out of thirty-seven.

This is important and gratifying as showing that the overthrow of the Frazier-Lemke-Hagan regime was brought about by internal rather than external forces.

However, the results of the recall election afford a measure of comfort for all concerned. Frazier, Lemke and Hagan have been recalled, but the initiated laws and proposed constitutional amendments have all been defeated. Thus, so far as "the farmers' program" is concerned, the situation remains unchanged. We are to go forward in the same old bus, but with new drivers.

The Chronicle is not sure but that this is, after all, the best solution of the problem. For if the election results mean anything at all, they mean that a majority of the farmers are not yet satisfied of the impracticability of their program of state industrialism, but that they had merely lost confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the men they had placed in charge of that program.

In the light of this expression of the sovereign will, the duty of the newly elected governor, attorney general and commissioner of agriculture and labor, who make up the commission which has complete charge of the industrial program is plain and unmistakable: they are to reorganize the staff, place competent managers at the heads of the various enterprises, cut out waste, extravagance, inefficiency and graft, and do their level best to make a success of the program.

In this way, and only in this way, shall we have a genuine test of the merits of state socialism. The Chronicle does not believe that this program will ever succeed, no matter how ably managed. We believe that Governor Preus was right when he declared in his Bismarck speech that no state-owned mill could ever compete with Crosby. We believe the weaknesses of public ownership are fundamental and inescapable. Given a universal monopoly, as in the case of our federal postoffice system, and of course it has the aspect of work ability. But when a single state attempts to run a flour mill in competition with a world of private industry—goodnight!

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

As Nancy and Nick passed Mr. Blenny's house on their way to look for Mrs. Rockfish and all the others, a voice called to them. Not a voice in the water where all the Wiggles people lived, but a voice outside of the water. So the Twins poked their heads up into the air to see who it was. To their astonishment there lay Mr. Blenny's fish himself right on top of the rock and staring thoughtfully out to sea.

"Oh, my!" said Nancy in dismay. "Haden't you better come into the water at once, Mr. Blenny? You'll suffocate out there in the air."

Mr. Blenny turned his round bullet head and thoughtful eyes toward them languidly, and looked at both of them at once. He had queer eyes, Mr. Blenny had. He could move them any which-way at all, and could conveniently look at the sunset and watch the moon come up on the other side of the world at the same time.

"No more than you will in the water," he answered slowly. "You're not Wiggles, are you?" And with that he again bent his tired gaze out to sea.

"Oh, but we have magic Green Shoes!" answered Nick, "that take us anywhere."

"And I have a magic Hgumacrack in my body which lets me go out into fresh air for an hour or two at a time, and a pair of magic fins I can climb with," answered the blenny. "I like to come here and hunt for barnacles. I eat them. By the way, you're not birds, are you?"

"No. Why?"
"Birds like blennies. They eat us and I have to be careful. There! I guess I'll have to go in now and look after the children. Did you see Bridget?"

"Yes, my wife. She's gadding."
"We'll hunt her," promised the Twins as they disappeared.

AT THE REX

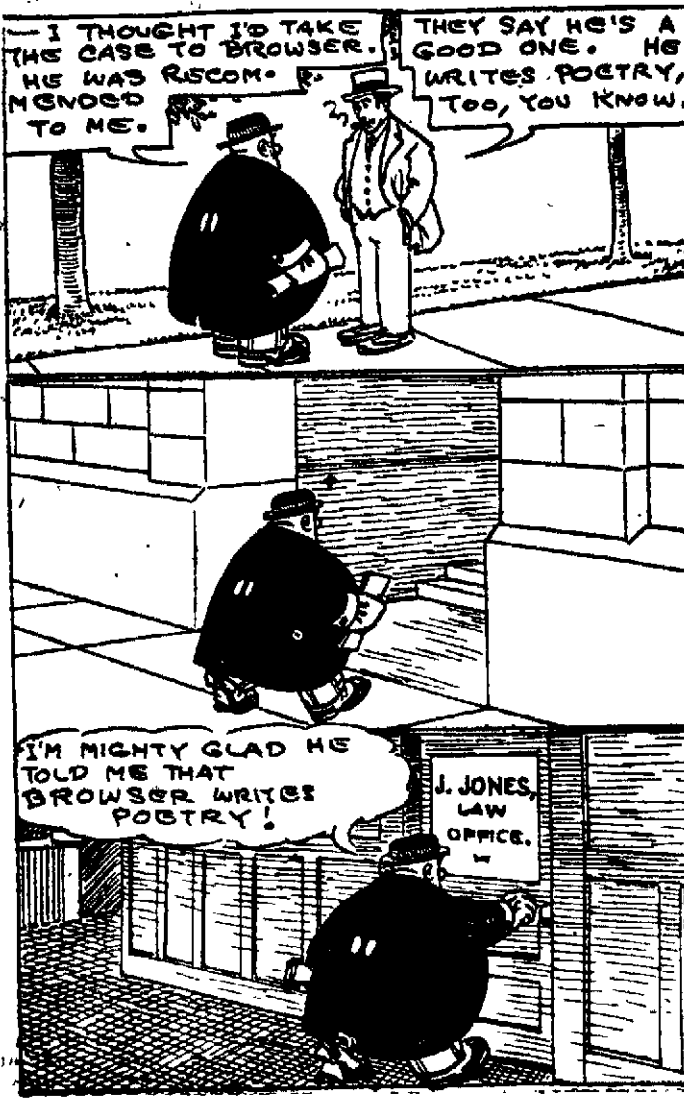

The story of "The Beach of Dreams," the Robinson-Cole release, which will be the chief attraction at the Rex Theater for two days beginning today, revolves about the unique situation which a young French girl finds herself in when a pleasure yacht on which she is traveling with a party of friends is shipwrecked on a desolate coast off the Southern Hemisphere, and she finds herself the sole survivor outside of two sailors. A few weeks later, after the death of the two men, she is left alone, and after several months of desolation the strain begins to tell. Her mind becomes weakened and she is slowly dying when relief comes from a most unexpected source.

The musical comedy "Miss Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" is a very funny farce comedy replete with popular songs and dainty dances. The story is a purely "Get-Rich-Quick" scheme in which a pretty girl sells stock in a moving picture concern that contemplates throwing moving pictures on the moon.

MR. BOWSER'S PIT

It Is Sometimes a Little Misplaced.
By M. QUAD.

Mr. Bowser was more than half an hour late in coming up to dinner the other evening. No explanations were demanded of him, but at the dinner table he said:

"Mrs. Bowser, I met with a case that called for all my pity."

"Was it a lame horse?" she asked in her satirical way.

"Don't talk that way to me if you want to hear about it!" said Mr. Bowser in petulant tones.

"But you seem to pity everything and everybody."

"Well, I was born that way and can't help it. It would be a great deal better for you if you showed more pity. I was coming home at the usual hour, in passing the street I saw a lot of furniture on the sidewalk."

"Yes, the people were moving."

"They were not moving, Mrs. Bowser, for they had no place to go to. They could not pay the rent the greedy landlord demanded, and so they were evicted."

"Yes, you saw all this," remarked Mrs. Bowser.

"And, of course, I got off the car to see what the trouble was. I saw three widows seated on chairs and crying as if their hearts would break. There was a crowd around them, but no one offered assistance."

"No one but you?"

"Samuel J. Bowser has never seen a person in misfortune without offering assistance, and he does not want to be praised for it."

"How much did you give?" queried Mrs. Bowser.

"I did not give anything in a money way, though it may come to that tomorrow. The first thing was to shelter them from the night blast. I may tomorrow spend the day in looking for houses for them."

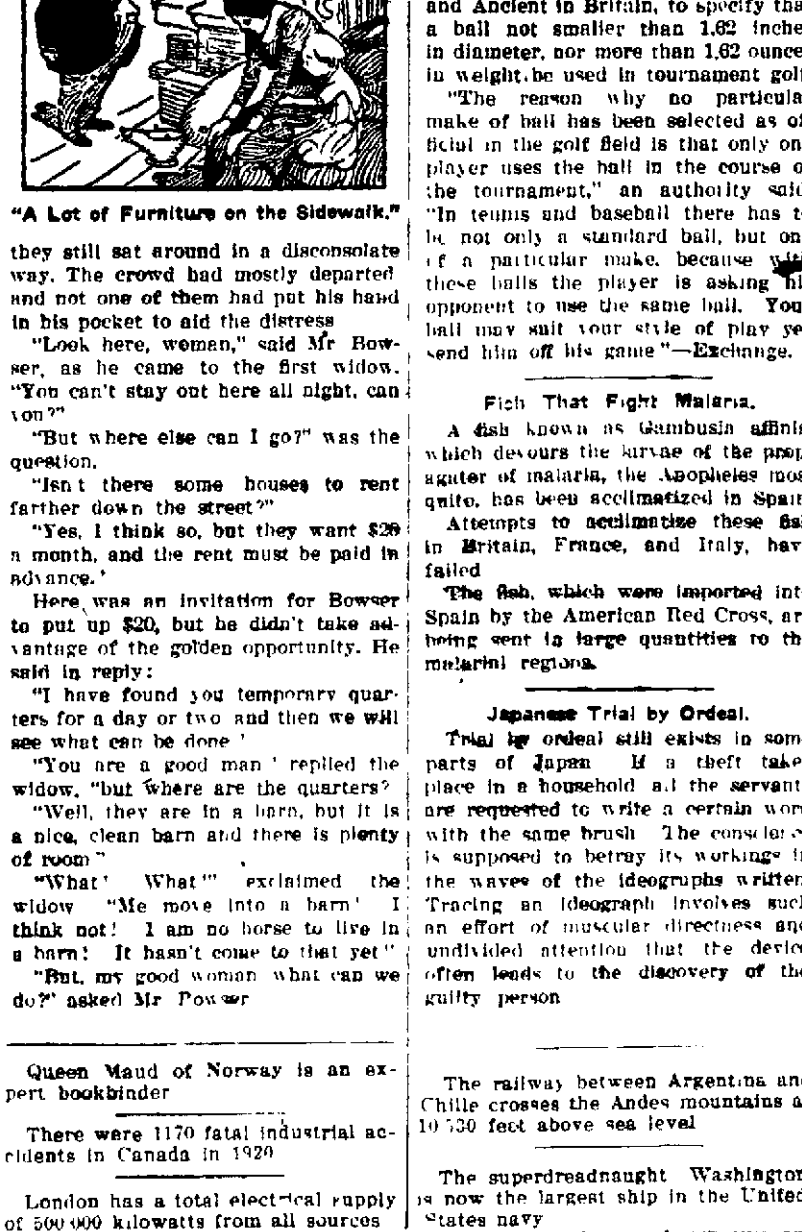

"I am sure they ought to be very thankful. There are many poor widows in town and they ought to find friends."

"But I haven't told you all," continued Mr. Bowser. "As I came along I saw a house barn for rent. I went right to the owner and rented it for a week, and I shall place the three widows and their belongings in the barn for a day or two. It isn't just the place for them, but people must bend to circumstances. I am now going out in search of a moving van, and I may not be home for three hours. The widows can go to a restaurant and get dinner while I am moving the furniture."

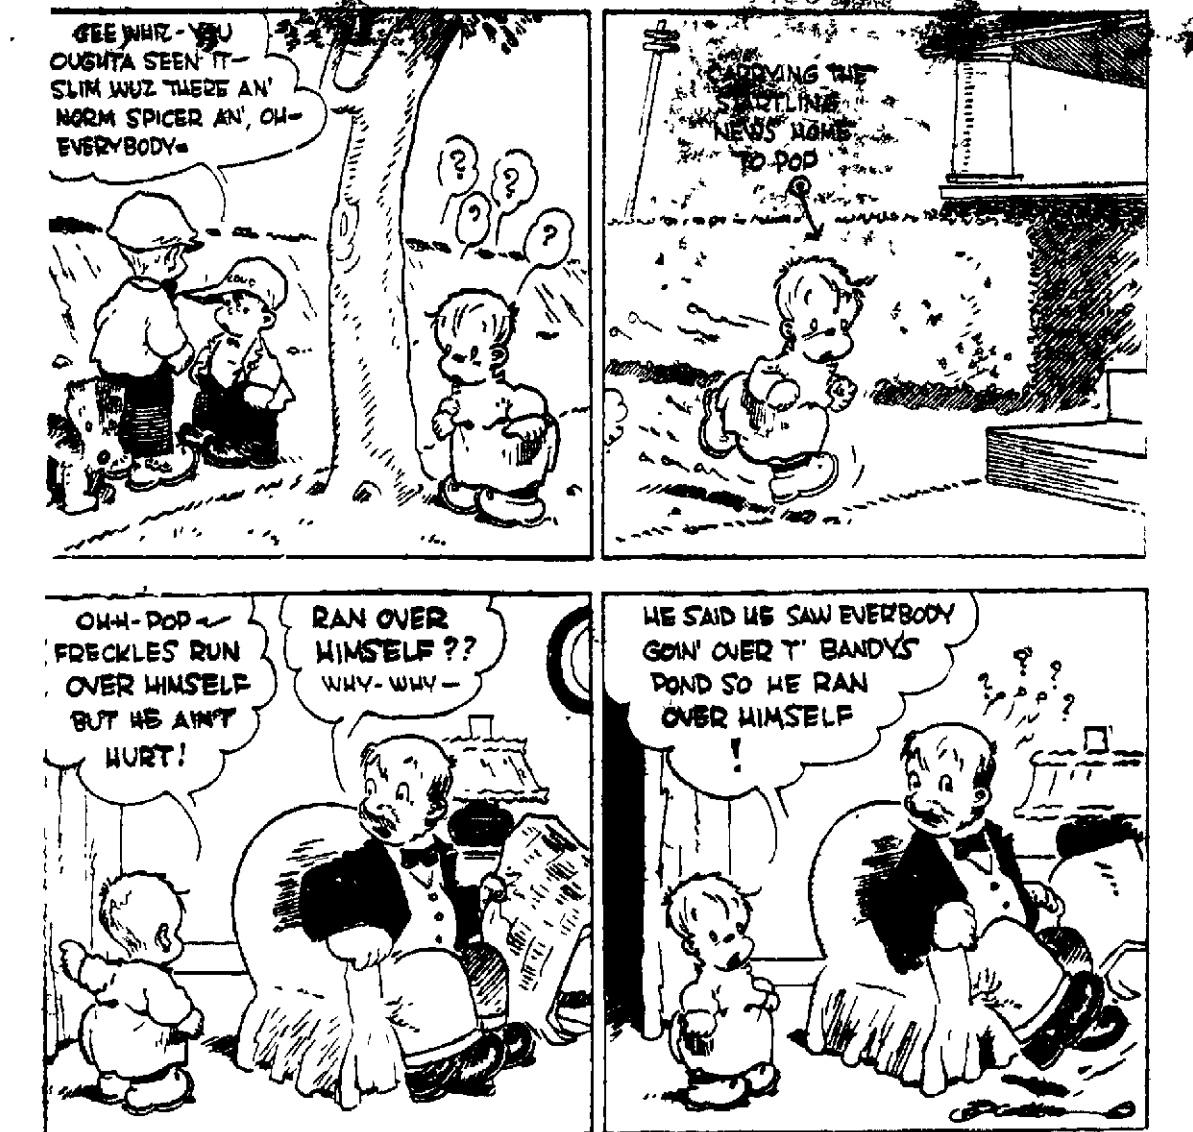

"Your errand of pity does you great credit," remarked Mrs. Bowser, making a sudden change in her attitude.

"That is what I like hearing you say," said Mr. Bowser, taking new courage. "If any newspaper man comes here you can give him the full particulars. It won't do a bit of hurt to have it all in the papers. It will make the rest of the people in town ashamed of themselves. Don't wait up for me, but go to bed whenever you like."

Mr. Bowser went down the street, where he saw the evicted persons, and

B. H. S. TO MEET VALLEY CITY IN FOOTBALL GAME

Final Contest of Season To Be Played in Bismarck Saturday Afternoon

OTHER GAMES IN STATE

Bismarck High School's gridiron warriors will tackle a hard foe Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Valley City team comes here for the last football game of the season in Bismarck.

The Valley team has played some fast football, especially in the last two weeks, and is ably directed. The Bismarck team will be in good shape, and it is possible two or three new players who have developed fast in the recent workouts may get an opportunity to show their worth.

A big crowd is expected to witness the game.

Mandan Plays Marmarth
Interest among school football adherents is keen in the lineup for the state championship race. Mandan plays Marmarth at Mandan Saturday for the championship of the south-western district. Marmarth having disputed Mandan's claim and earned the right to show her prowess on the football field by beating several North Dakota and Montana teams.

Fargo plays Jamestown next Tuesday in a seven meeting, the first game having resulted in a 6 to 6 tie. If Fargo loses she will not be able to enter the semi-finals for the south-eastern district.

Grafton high school will play Devils Lake this afternoon in the latter city for the championship of the northeastern section of the state. The Devils Lake team won the right to the contest by defeating Grand Forks last week 20 to 0. The Grafton team won the championship of the northeastern section of the state last year and then was snowed under by Williston in the championship game.

UNIVERSITY TO MEET TOUGH FOE IN SOUTH DAKOTA

Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 4.—With probably the stiffest game of the Dakota conference, that between the University of North Dakota and South Dakota State college the Pileterall team is fast rounding into the finest form of the season. Coach Davis states yesterday that he believed Saturday's game would be the hardest any of his university teams have ever played.

Last year North Dakota beat the southern agricultural school 6-3 in a hard fought game played here. The year before South Dakota won on her home field 9-7.

Comparative scores on this year's game indicate that the teams are rather evenly matched, with perhaps South Dakota holding a little the edge on the dope. North Dakota Aggies lost to the South Dakota team 54-0 while Boyleske's game held the university to a 38-5 score. However the agricultural college men played a much stronger game here than they did against South Dakota evidently saving their best plays for the North Dakota game.

BEEF STILL COUNTS ON THIS ELEVEN

By N. E. A. Service
Baltimore, Nov. 4.—Camp Holabird, near Baltimore, has a famous football team. Besides hanging up a fine record for games won, the team also is famous for its beef. The soldiers' line weighs a total of 1514 pounds, end to end, an average per man of 216 2-7 pounds.

The line isn't slow freight, either. It has succeeded in outrunning its opponents right along.

The captain and coach of this big team is Captain Charles J. Mabbutt, al ad weighing 290 pounds and a former star of the University of Idaho. He plays center.

The smallest man in the line is Tom Tritta, right end. He weighs 184. But Tom more than makes up for his lightheadedness by his brand of play. He, besides being a football star, is a heavyweight fighter with a mean kick. He wins his fights by knockouts.

Another scrapper, Eddie Burnbrook, middleweight champion of the Third Corps Area, plays halfback.

The beef in the line and its quantity:

guard, 194; Morse, left tackle, 240; Lewis, left end, 185.

All of the big army camps in the east have football teams of class. They're now playing an elimination series and Holabird is hopeful of winning the championship in which event they will play the Marine Corps champions here Dec. 3.

The winner, on the following Saturday, will play the Great Lakes Gobs. The winner will be crowned the football service champion of America.

hip was broken and he suffered an internal injury, the seriousness of which could not be learned early last night.

LANDIS TELLS BALL PLAYERS WHERE TO STOP

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, last night wired William McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, advising him not to permit players of his league to participate in any games in which Joe Gedeon, former infielder of the St. Louis Americans, was in the lineup.

The ruling of the commissioner followed a receipt of a telegram from President McCarthy last week inquiring about the status of Joe Gedeon. At that time Mr. McCarthy advised the judge that a ball game was to be played on the coast in which a number of Coast League players were to participate. Gedeon was scheduled to be a member of one of the clubs. The game was to be played November 11.

Gedeon was given his unconditional release by President Phil Ball of the St. Louis American league club after he had testified before the Cook county grand jury here regarding the alleged throwing of the world's series game by some members of the Chicago White Sox to the Cincinnati Nationals in 1919.

During the past season he did not play in organized baseball.

Judge Landis said he had no comment to make on the decision on Gedeon, except that he was on the ineligible list.

A means of cooling the air and increasing its humidity is provided by a new electric fan attachment.

PRAYING COACH IS SUCCESSFUL

By NEA Service.
Washington, Pa., Nov. 4.—"Never since I have been coaching at football have I sent a team off the gridiron without praying that my men would come out victorious and that they would not be hurt in the contest."

That was the way Earle "Greasy" Neale, former major league outfielder, started his recent remarkable speech to the thirty graduate body at Washington and Jefferson.

"Things that are not worth praying for are not worth having," Neale continued. "I am praying that we will win our next game and also that we will go through the season without defeat."

"I believe that my prayers have been answered somewhat so far this season as none of my players has been hurt to speak of and we have come off the field a winner in every game."

No one knew Neale was a praying coach until he delivered his remarkable speech. He received a remarkable ovation.

That Neale has a strong eleven this season can be seen from the showing in five games in which the Presidents have rolled up 122 points and have had but 7 points scored on them. The scores of the first five games: W. and J. 11, Bethany 0; W. and J. 26, Bucknell 0; W. and J. 54, West Virginia Wesleyan 0; W. and J. 14, Carnegie Tech 0; W. and J. 14, Lehigh 7.

Neale has many veterans from last year, but he has developed several new stars who eventually will take their place.

The game that Neale and every follower of Washington and Jefferson wants to win is the game with Pittsburgh on Nov. 13 and Neale is now bringing along his team for that battle with Glenn Warner's powerful squad.

Neale is another who's making his work known.

Joe DuMoe, coach at Fordham university, was a former pro with the Akra Indians. Eddie Chaney is another of Harvard's stars who played pro ball last season with Buffalo and who is now successfully leading Mount Union.

Bert Ingwerson, former Illinois star tackle, played with the Etoileys two seasons, and now is coaching at Illinois.

Among others making good with teams once little known are: Joe Guyon, former Georgia Tech star and schools, never heard of a few years ago, now figure prominently in the annual selection of All-American teams.

Better Coaching
There is a reason for this. College football grows wind up the brief college season with the fighting football spirit unsatisfied. They join the pro ranks and show greater spirit than they ever showed in college, gradually accumulating knowledge of the game that their old coaches would deny.

These men who have been stars in their days, All-Americans and professionals, are growing in number year by year. They are spreading out all over the country, taking jobs as coaches at western and southern schools. And these schools today are getting A. No. 1 training and are playing the brand of football that a few years ago was seen only in the east.
